Re-elect Wilson To-day!

TO MEN WHO THINK

For weeks your intelligence has been insulted by false statements contained in page advertisements paid for by the Republican National Committee and by members of the Republican Old Guard, who waxed fat under a Republican tariff that worked all the time for their Republican pocketbooks and against yours.

These high priests of special privilege are trying to make you torget.

They want you to forget that they themselves were responsible for the Republican panics, the inevitable results of years under Republican tariffs-the panics of 1873, 1893, 1903, 1907, and 1913.

They want you to forget the want, the misery, the despair caused by these Republican panics!

They want you to forget the strikes and lockouts at Homestead, at Paterson, at Lawrence, at Fall River, at Cripple Creek, at Wilkesbarre, under Republican rule.

They want you to forget the days when Republican tariffs worked with machine-like precision, when men and women who longed to do right were driven to acts of desperation in order to keep body and soul together.

OR-IF YOU WILL REMEMBER-

They hope by talking of business disaster and unemployment to make you afraid to vote as your conscience and common sense dictate—
FOR PRESIDENT WILSON.

But facts knock their misstatements cold.

Crees Fighting Union "Doubts as to the future," General won Beseler said, "can find no place in Polish hearts. It will be our task, shoulder to shoulder with the residents of Poland, to carry the war to a victorious conclusion and to heal the wounds of the war. Would Henry Ford, a Republican and head of an industry employing 45,000 men, be supporting President Wilson?

Would George F. Johnson, and H. B. Endicott, of The Endicott-Johnson Company, Republicans and owners of the largest shoe manufactory in the world, be supporting President Wilson?

Would Isador Jacobs, Independent and President of the California Canneries Company, the largest concern of its kind in America, be supporting President Wilson?

Would F. D. Underwood, Republican and President of the Erie Railroad, be supporting President Wilson?

Would Thomas A. Edison, Republican, the world's greatest inventor and employer of thousands of men, be supporting President Wilson?

Would The Iron Age, in its November, 1916, issue, say:

"The pig iron market of the past two weeks is practically without a parallel in the experience of present-day producers. The advances are unprecedented, in being due, not to a clamorous demand for iron for quick shipment, as in all previous excited markets, but to a simultaneous effort of buyers to cover far forward requirements-in many cases through the second half of 1917."

The ceremony was short and simple. Text of Proclamation wearing the decorations granted for the reduction of Antwerp and the Polish fortresses, mounted the dais in the gala ballroom of the old Jagellonian Castle, and in the name of Germany's sovereign read the imperial manifesto. When he ceased, the Polish Count Hutten-Czapski, the palace commandant, read from a leather bound pamphlet to the Polish notables a translation of the manifesto in their own language.

Berlin, Nov. 6.—"We hope that soon a Polish army will be fighting by our side in token of the sentiment for development of the new kingdom," said General von Beseler, at the ceremony in Warraw in celebration of what it termed the rebirth of the Polish nation. Reports from the Polish capital say that hundreds already have volunteered for the army which is called into existence by the manifesto of Emperor William and Emperor Francis Joseph. At Lublin the establishment of the new kingdom was proclaimed, and illewine establishment of the new kingdom was proclaimed, and illewine establishment of the new kingdom was proclaimed, and illewine said to have been greeted with intense enthusiasm.

In Warraw the manifesto was read at noon Sunday to the assembled Polish representatives in the royal palace of the Governor General entered the room and at noon Sunday to the assembled Polish representatives in the royal palace of the Governor General entered the room and the proclamation. Intense interest was shown by officials to-day in the nature of the various proclamations, the probable boundaries of the new kingdom, the extent of its independence and the possibility of the recruiting of a Polish army to aid the Teutonic powers. Teutonic powers.

German Press Divided on Polish Liberation

Berlin, Nov. 6.—The newspapers dis-cuss the Polish proclamation broadly, but with some reservation. The Lib-eral, Catholic and Socialist organs fa-vor it, while the Conservatives are more disposed to see objections. minds.

The papers generally assume that the kingdom necessarily will lean upon Germany and Austria-Hungary, not only for protection against Russia, but because its cultural sympathies have a westward and not an eastward trend. Some of the papers express the expectation that Germany's military power will be strengthened through a close alliance with Poland and also expect that Polish troops will be forthwith organized and assist in establishing Polish freedom.

The Liberal, Socialist and Catholic papers take special pleasure in pointing out that Poland receives her independence from the Central Powers, whereas the Entente Allies claim a monopoly in protecting the liberties of small states. Berlin newspapers speak of the proclamation of a Polish kingdom as an event of prime importance for the whole world. The "Lokalanzeiger" says:

"If the Poles will compare the promises in the manifesto read yesterday with those made shortly after the beginning of the war by Grand Duke Nicholas (then Russian commander in chief) and recall the proposed constitution framed by the former Russian Minister Maklakov, by which only a pietence of liberty was to be given, they cannot for one moment be in doubt what their fate would have been if we had not been victorious."

Paris, Nov. 6.—"According to the 'Mattino,' Pope Benedict at the next consistory will name three cardinals from among the French prelates, to show his sympathy for the French clergy," says a Havas dispatch from Napies. "The candidates will be the Archbishops of Rennes, Rouen and Lyons."

A dispatch from Rome October 23 said Pope Benedict would hold a secret consistory December 4 and a public consistory December 7, and that Monsignor Count Raffaele Scapinelli, former Papal Nuncio at Vienna, and Monsignor Fruewirth, former nuncio at Munich, would be given the red hat Since this dispatch another vacancy in the Sacred College has been created by the death of Cardinal Francis Della Volpe, prefect of the congregation.
